COLLECT

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:

help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word,

we may embrace and for ever hold fast

the hope of everlasting life,
which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,

who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

POST COMMUNION

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry
with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom:
renew your people with your heavenly grace,
and in all our weakness
sustain us by your true and living bread;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Amen

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 14: 7-10, 19-end.

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah.

7 Although our iniquities testify against us, act, O LORD, for your name's sake; our apostasies indeed are many, and we have sinned against you.

8 O hope of Israel, its saviour in time of trouble, why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveller turning aside for the night?

9 Why should you be like someone confused, like a mighty warrior who cannot give help? Yet you, O LORD, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not forsake us!

10 Thus says the LORD concerning this people: Truly they have loved to wander, they have not restrained their feet; therefore the LORD does not accept them, now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins.

19 Have you completely rejected Judah? Does your heart loathe Zion? Why have you struck us down so that there is no healing for us? We look for peace, but find no good; for a time of healing, but there is terror instead.

20 We acknowledge our wickedness, O LORD, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you.

21 Do not spurn us, for your name's sake; do not dishonour your glorious throne; remember and do not break your covenant with us.

22 Can any idols of the nations bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not you, O LORD our God? We set our hope on you, for it is you who do all this.

PSALM 84.1-7

RESPONSE: Happy are they who dwell in your house!

1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O Lord of hosts! My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

2 The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; by the side of your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

RESPONSE

3 Happy are they who dwell in your house! they will always be praising you.

4 Happy are the people whose strength is in you! whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.

RESPONSE

5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.

6 They will climb from height to height, and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.

7 Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; hearken, O God of Jacob.

RESPONSE

SECOND READING

2 Timothy 4.6-8, 16-18

A reading from the second letter of Paul to Timothy.

6 As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come.

7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

8 From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

16 At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them!

17 But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL

Luke 18.9-14

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

9 Jesus also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt:

10 'Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax-collector.

11 The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, "God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax-collector.

12 I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income."

13 But the tax-collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner!"

14 I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.'

Christmas Tree Festival - from Friday 28th November - Tuesday 2nd December.

Trees are ordered and Santa has already sent the gifts to give to the Children.

Please could you advise if any Church Group would like a Tree.

To make this as successful as in previous years we do need your help? Welcoming, selling Raffle tickets, helping with refreshments and lunches etc.

A SIGN UP SHEET WILL BE AT THE BACK OF CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY.

We have a set up team for installing and taking down but if you wish to help with this please let us know (Anne or Bridget)
