Almighty God,
 who sent your Holy Spirit
 to be the life and light of your Church:
 open our hearts to the riches of your grace,
 that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit
 in love and joy and peace;
 through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
 who is alive and reigns with you,
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever.

AmenPOST COMMUNION

Holy Father,
 who gathered us here around the table of your Son to share this meal with the whole household of God:
 in that new world where you reveal the fullness of
 your peace,
 gather people of every race and language to share in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord.

FIRST READING

2 Kings 4.42–44

A reading from the second book of Kings.

42 A man came bringing food from the first fruits to Elisha, the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, 'Give it to the people and let them eat.'

43 But his servant said, 'How can I set this before a hundred people?' So he repeated, 'Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the LORD, "They shall eat and have some left."'

44 He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.

PSALM 145.10–19

RESPONSE: You open wide your hand, O Lord, and satisfy our needs.

10 All your works praise you, O Lord, and your faithful servants bless you.

RESPONSE

11 They make known the glory of your kingdom and speak of your power;

12 That the peoples may know of your power and the glorious splendour of your kingdom.

RESPONSE

13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; your dominion endures throughout all ages.

14 The Lord is faithful in all his words and merciful in all his deeds.

15 The Lord upholds all those who fall; he lifts up those who are bowed down.

RESPONSE

16 The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord, and you give them their food in due season.

17 You open wide your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

RESPONSE

18 The Lord is righteous in all his ways and loving in all his works. 19 The Lord is near to those who call upon him, to all who call upon him faithfully.

RESPONSE

6.00pm

SECOND READING

Ephesians 3.14–21

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

14 I bow my knees before the Father,

15 from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name.

16 I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit,

17 and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love.

18 I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, 19 and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

20 Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine,

21 to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL

John 6.1–21

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

1 Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias.

2 A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick.

3 Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples.

4 Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near.

5 When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming towards him, Jesus said to Philip, 'Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?'

6 He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do.

7 Philip answered him, 'Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.'

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Jesus,

9 'There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?'

10 Jesus said, 'Make the people sit down.' Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all.

11 Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted.

12 When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, 'Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.'

13 So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets.

14 When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, 'This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.'

15 When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake,

17 got into a boat, and started across the lake to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

18 The lake became rough because a strong wind was blowing.

19 When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the lake and coming near the boat, and they were terrified.

20 But he said to them, 'It is I; do not be afraid.'

21 Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land towards which they were going.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Heavenly Father, we thank you and praise you for your love and for all you give us. During this vacancy, we pray for the person, we believe in faith, you have chosen to be our next Incumbent. May that person respond gladly to your call, and work with us to grow your Kingdom here. We ask this in your name. AMEN
