COLLECT

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.

Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

POST COMMUNION

Loving Father, we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit,
that we may serve you here on earth
until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet
with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

FIRST READING

Hosea 5.15 – 6.6

A reading from the book of the prophet Hosea.

Hear the word of the LORD, O people of Israel:

15 I will return again to my place until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face. In their distress they will beg my favour:

1 'Come, let us return to the LORD; for it is he who has torn, and he will heal us; he has struck down, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up, that we may live before him.

3 Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD; his appearing is as sure as the dawn; he will come to us like the showers, like the spring rains that water the earth.'

4 What shall I do with you, O Ephraim? What shall I do with you, O Judah? Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early.

5 Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets, I have killed them by the words of my mouth, and my judgement goes forth as the light.

6 For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt-offerings.

PSALM 50.7–15

RESPONSE: The Lord will show his salvation to the upright.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak: 'O Israel, I will bear witness against you; for I am God, your God.

8 I do not accuse you because of your sacrifices; your offerings are always before me.

RESPONSE

9 I will take no bull-calf from your stalls, nor he-goats out of your pens; 10 For the beasts of the forest are mine, the herds in their thousands upon the hills.

11 I know every bird in the sky, and the creatures of the fields are in my sight.

RESPONSE

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the whole world is mine and all that is in it.

13 Do you think I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving and make good your vows to the Most High.

15 Call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you and you shall honour me.'

RESPONSE

SECOND READING

Romans 4.13–25

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

13 The promise that Abraham would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith.

14 If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void.

15 For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

16 For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, 17 as it is written, 'I have made you the father of many nations') Abraham believed in the presence of the God who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

18 Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become 'the father of many nations,' according to what was said, 'So numerous shall your descendants be.'

19 He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb.

20 No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God,

21 being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

22 Therefore his faith 'was reckoned to him as righteousness.'

23 Now the words, 'it was reckoned to him,' were written not for his sake alone,

24 but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in God who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

GOSPEL

Matthew 9.9–13, 18–26

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

9 As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, 'Follow me.' And he got up and followed him.

10 And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax-collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples.

11 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, 'Why does your teacher eat with tax-collectors and sinners?'

12 But when he heard this, he said, 'Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. 13 Go and learn what this means, "I desire mercy, not sacrifice." For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.'

18 While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, 'My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.'

19 And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples.

20 Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak,

21 for she said to herself, 'If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.'

22 Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, 'Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.' And instantly the woman was made well.

23 When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute-players and the crowd making a commotion, 24 he said, 'Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him.

25 But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up.

26 And the report of this spread throughout that district.
