PRAYER FOR THE WEEK.

Heavenly Father we give you thanks for all who have loved you deeply and revealed your love to us. We pray for all who teach us from the Scriptures and for all who preach. We pray for the young in faith and pray for their enthusiasm. We remember also all who have served you for a long time in this Church, and those who have warm hearts and a strong faith. May your Church reveal your love and your glory in the world and we pray for all who seek to dedicate themselves to you through baptism, confirmation and ordination.

COLLECT

Almighty God,
you have knit together your elect
in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord:

grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints
in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love
you;

through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

POST COMMUNION

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things:

may we who have shared at this table
as strangers and pilgrims here on earth
be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom;

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

FIRST READING

Isaiah 25.6–9

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

6 On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear.

7 And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever.

8 Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken.

9 It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

PSALM 24: 1-6

RESPONSE: The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God no torment will ever touch them.

1 The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world and all who dwell therein.

2 For it is he who founded it upon the seas and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.

RESPONSE

3 'Who can ascend the hill of the Lord? and who can stand in his holy place?'

4 'Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, who have not pledged themselves to falsehood, nor sworn by what is a fraud.'

RESPONSE

5 They shall receive a blessing from the Lord and a just reward from the God of their salvation.'

6 Such is the generation of those who seek him, of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.

RESPONSE

SECOND READING

Revelation 21.1–6a

A reading from the book of Revelation.

1 I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

2 And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them;

4 he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.'

5 And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.'

6 Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.'

GOSPEL

John 11.32–44

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

32 When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.'

33 When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved.

34 He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.'

35 Jesus began to weep.

36 So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!'

37 But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

38 Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it.

39 Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.'

40 Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?'

41 So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me.'

42 I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.'

43 When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!'

44 The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'
